

PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARCHITECTURE WEEK
LEICESTER 16TH -25TH JUNE 2006
SPARKENHOE ARTS CENTRE
GOPSALL STREET HIGHFIELDS
THURSDAY 22ND JUNE 3PM -6PM
A CONSULTATION/TALK ON
THE AFRICAN CARIBBEAN COMMUNITY & THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT OF LEICESTER”

A creative visioning and public consultation event 22nd June 3-pm - 6pm Sparkenhoe Arts Centre Gopsall Street Leicester. With workshops exploring Afro-Centric perspectives on the Built Environment of Leicester. A summary overview by Mike Candler Project Director of the Cultural Quarter Development Team will talk on the Cultural Quarter Development and impact on the city and people of Leicester. Dare to Diva Productions a local Culturally Diverse Arts/Media Consultancy programmed Literature/Text into the Built Environment, will give a presentation on using Afro centric Principles of ‘Nguzo Saba’ (Kwanzaa) in Design and the Built Environment. Following this there will be Workshops Group Discussions/Consultation. Dare To Diva Productions will also present ‘The Afrikah Urban Mapping’ – of Leicester a fresh new vision for the community to consider. a first step towards becoming active in contributing to the Urban Landscape of Leicester. An exciting creative, innovative and participatory event aimed at engaging the African/Caribbean Community of all ages in Leicester to become more aware of Public Art Design & the Built Environment and the ways in it effects there lives..

(Light African Caribbean freshments will be available) THIS EVENT IS FREE

Spaces will be limited so please book your place early

For Information contact Tues Weds Fri between 10am-5am (0116)

2556000 or email lacaf_c@hotmail.com or go to www.architectureweek.org.uk

Dare To Diva Productions
music promotion, drama, media

